

European Research Area
Collaborative Research Network

---

Governance of the Europe of Knowledge

10-11 April 2014

Robinson College, Cambridge

---

We would like to thank UACES and Robinson College for generously supporting this event

---

PROGRAMME

Day 1, Thursday, 10 April 2014 (Venue: Garden Room, Robinson)

Welcome

15.30-16.00

---

Session 1: 'Excellence', elites, and the world of knowledge

16.00-17.30

Chair: Dr Julie Smith, Robinson College, University of Cambridge

Mitchell Young, Charles University in Prague – 'What kind of Europe does excellence build?'

Dr Tatiana Fumasoli, ARENA, University of Oslo – 'Emerging scientific elites: how European research funding instruments trigger integration and fragmentation of the Europe of Knowledge'

Frederik Ponjaert, IEE-ULB and KULeuven – 'Not All That Glitters Is Gold: The Implications on Regional Higher Education Policy Instruments of divergent understandings of Mobility and Knowledge policies – The Case of Europe and East Asia'

---

Dinner

19.00-21.00

---

Day 2: Friday, 11 April 2014 (Venue: Garden Room, Robinson)
Session 2: ‘Moving students and researchers’	9.30-11.00
Chairs: Dr Diana Beech, Cambridge, and Dr Meng-Hsuan Chou, NTU Dr Amelia Hadfield, Canterbury Christ Church University and Prof Robert Summerby-Murray, Dalhousie University – ‘Mobility Programmes: Educational Geography, Vocational Demography, or European Demagogy?’ Dr Pauline Ravinet, Université Lille 2 – ‘Why has the Bologna process been about a common degree structure? Combining institutions and ideas to explain the crystallization of the Bologna Process’ Daiva Repeckaite, Vytautas Magnus University – ‘New ERA for doctoral education: students no more’
Coffee (Seminar Room, Robinson)	11.00-11.30
Session 3: ‘Tensions between EU and domestic arenas’	11.30-12.30
Chair: Prof John Loughlin, University of Cambridge Andrea Gideon, University of Leeds – ‘Recurrences and differences in European research policies regarding the higher education institution sector’ Dr Amelia Hadfield, Canterbury Christ Church University and Dr Mary C Murphy, University College Cork – ‘The Impact of Re-nationalisation of EU Education Policy on the Europe of Knowledge’
Lunch	12.30-13.30
Session 4: ‘Constellations &amp; networks’	13.30-14.30
Chair: Dr Pauline Ravinet, Université Lille 2 Filipa Ribeiro, University of Porto – ‘Higher education bricolage: the role of conflicts in knowledge networks’ Vanja Ivošević, University of Porto and Janja Komljenović, University of Bristol – ‘Interplaying governance: EHEA and ERA’

Coffee (Seminar Room, Robinson)	14.30-14.45
Session 5: ‘Funding the Europe of Knowledge’  Chair: Mitchell Young , Charles University in Prague  Dr Laura Cruz-Castro and Prof Luis Sanz-Menéndez , CSIC Institute of Public Goods and Policies – ‘Comparing strategic responses of universities and research centres to the European institutional changes produced by the emergence of the European Research Council and its funding instruments’  Dr Nicola Francesco Dotti , Vrije Universiteit Brussel, André Spithoven , Universiteit Gent and Bas van Heur , Vrije Universiteit Brussel – ‘The Brussels Research System: which actors participate in Framework Programme’s projects and how has this evolved during the last decade?’	14.45-15.45
What next (optional)	15.45-16.00

Workshop organisers:

Diana Beech (University of Cambridge) - djb96@cam.ac.uk

Meng-Hsuan Chou (Nanyang Technological University) – hsuan.chou@cantab.net

Julie Smith (University of Cambridge) - jes42@cam.ac.uk